TO THE READER.

THE Advantages that have accrued to the Studious and Learned from this way of Sale, are the most effectual Recommendations of it: And as they have been the Causes, so are the true Reasons of its Continuance; in pursuit of which, this Essay is made of the Libraries of Dr. John Bradford, and of Mr. William Cooper, late of London. I shall not describe the Books, or intimate how Valuable and Choice many of them are; since many Gentlemen that have attended Auctions are competent Judges of the most current. They are submitted to every Persons censure and candor, with this farther Information, That the Sale will begin the 14th day of June next, 1686, at Bridges Coffee House in Popes-Head-Alley in Cornhill.

This SALE will begin on Monday the 14th day of June next, from the hours of Nine in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two to Six in the Evening ; Continuing daily till all the Books are sold.

1. THAT who bids most is the Buyer ; and if any difference ariseth , the same Book or Books to be Exposed again to Sale.
2. That the Books in this Catalogue (not otherwise expressed) are for ought we know perfect ; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his choice of leaving or taking them.
3. That the Money for the Book or Books so bought, is to be paid by the Buyer within one Month after the Auction or Sale is ended, at the place of Sale ; where upon payment thereof the Book or Books so bought shall be ready to be delivered within the Month aforesaid.
4. That these Books are to be seen for one whole Week before the Auction begins, from Nine till Twelve in the Morning, and from Two till Six in the Afternoon, by any Gentleman that please to repair to the above-mentioned place.
